Resignation Said to Have Resulted From Disagreement With Prince Max

Dispatches Declare There Was no Possibility of Reconciliation

BULLETIN

LONDON—General Ludendorff resigned as first quartermaster general because the military authorities were placed under civilian control. The retiring general, an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen adds, has returned to great headquarters to take leave of the amy and Field Marshal von Hindenburg who remains as chief of the army.

ZURICH—Reports that Field Marshal von Hindenburg has resigned are printed in German newspapers. The Neueste Nachristen of Dresden says the field marshal has tendered his resignation, but that the emperor has not decided whether to accept or not.

The Frankfort Gazette says that vonHindenburg has not resigned but reports to that effect, it says, are being circulated by the pan-Germans.

Saxon Ministers Quit

AMSTERDAM—As a consequence of the reorganization of the government of the kingdom of Saxony, all the ministers have resigned, the Saxon state Gazette has announced, according to a despatch from Dresden. King Friederich August has accepted the resignations of the premier and minister of finance, it is said.

Washington Gets Report

WASHINGTON—Press dispatches from The Hague transmitted to the war department today say General Ludendorff resigned his post as first quartermaster general and real leader of the German army as the result of a complete disagreement with Prince Maximilian, the chancellor. There was no possibility of a reconciliation, according to these advices, and the emperor was compelled to accept Ludendorff's resignation.

According to an official dispatch from Switzerland today, General Ludendorff's successor probably will be General von Seekt, who, during the war was von Mackensen's chief of staff in Rumania. General von Boehm also is said to be mentioned in some quarters for the place. The latter during the last two years participated in the battles of the Somme and in Flanders.

Sugar Ship Is Torpedo Victim

(By the Associated Press)

MANAHAWKEN, N. J.—A Spanish steamship loaded with sugar was torpedoed 10 miles off Barnegat, N. J., at 10 o'clock last night and 23 men of the crew of 29 reached the shore early today, according to information received here by coast guards.

MONMOUTH BEACH, N. J.—Reports received here over the telephone wires of the coast guard service say that survivors of the crews of two steamships sunk off the coast have been landed, one boatload at Barnegat and one at Egg Harbor. The reports were that the ships had been torpedoed, although the information in this regard was indefinite.

NEW YORK—More than a score of survivors from a sunken steamship were landed today at Barnegat, N. J. Authorities here were investigating to learn whether the vessel was torpedoed, struck a mine or was in collision in the heavy fog off the Atlantic coast.

VAN HISE HOME; MET NOTABLES, VISITED FRONT

University President Praises Fortitude of French and English

Pres. Charles R. Van Hise is back in Madison from a trip to Europe. He visited England and France. He would not go into detail as to the accomplishments of the trip but in an interview praised the French and English for their fortitude.

"Everywhere all of our needs were anticipated," said Pres. Van Hise. "The hospitality was unbounded. At luncheons and dinners we had opportunity to meet many of the representative men of England. A special train was arranged for the party to go to Sandringham to visit the king. We had opportunity for conference with Lloyd George, Balfour, Lord Robert Cecil, and many others. In France, Pres. Poincaire received us.

"The representative men of England that we met are unanimous in feeling the profound importance of the continuance after the war of common international policies of the English-speaking peoples.

Viewed Munition Factories

"Every opportunity was given to the party to see the manufacture of explosives, shells, guns, airplanes, etc. In short, we were given a clear conception of the war effort of Great Britain. With a single purpose the full energies of the nation are directed to one end—the winning of the war.

"In France, the party visited the British, French, and American fronts. Many of the ruined cities and villages of France were seen. We were able to get a clear understanding of the modern method of elastic offense and defense, the new development which has come with the abandonment of trench warware. When the lines become stable, the trench is no longer tenable, since it is photographed by the airplane and the men in it can be destroyed by the high explosive shells.

Admires Undaunted Spirit

"The British and French alike are amazing in their fortitude. If one traveling in England did not know the language of the country and the situation, he would not appreciate the sacrifices that England has made. As always her deepest feelings are hidden. The cheerful undaunted spirit of the British and French people aroused in me unbounded admiration. It was only as one came into intimate contact with the individual that the personal losses were known."

COMMENT IN LONDON

Chronicle Says Nothing Left But to Announce Armistice Terms

BULLETIN

WASHINGTON—The president is expected to make no rejoinder. His personal exchanges with the German authorities, officials today said, ended when he transmitted the correspondence to the allies. The next step must be on the part of the co-belligerents acting in concert.

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—Germany's reply to President Wilson's last note was rather unexpected here and pending the receipt of the official text through the Swiss legation comment was withheld. Generally, however, the note was not regarded as one requiring an answer.

No Advance Made

The diplomatic situation is just where it was when President Wilson informed the German government that its request for an armistice and peace had been transmitted to the allied governments. The next step was the submission of terms of an armistice to Germany.

Announcement from London that Premier Lloyd George and Foreign Secretary Balfour had left for France with naval and military advisers foreshadowed an early meeting of the supreme war council at Versailles. While the military and naval members of the council are drawing terms of an armistice which will be tantamount of surrender by Germany, the political representatives of the entente powers are expected to discuss the individual peace views of their government with a view to formulating a complete program to be presented if Germany accepts the terms for armistice.

Comment In London

LONDON — The Chronicle says: "The German reply to President Wilson's note is in effect, an unqualified acceptance. Nothing remains but for the associated powers to announce without delay

HELP MINNESOTA!

[Editorial]

We trust that the good people of Madison and Dane county will find a way to extend the hand of help to our stricken friends across our western border in the Minnesota fire area.

Reports to The Capital Times indicate that the devastation is even more complete than the newspaper reports would indicate. Thousands lost their homes and were thrown into a wilderness of charred ruins.

Northern Minnesota today is a small Belgium set down in America. Thousands are sick following exposure. Clothing is needed. Financial help is wanted.

Surely the hearts of the people of Wisconsin will go out in sympathy to these poor people.

The state council of defense has been designated as the organization to raise funds in Wisconsin. The county councils will raise the funds in each county and forward same to the state organization. Dane county's quota is $15,000 with $8,000 for the city of Madison.

Do your best to aid these sufferers. Send in your contribution to the Dane county council of defense.

GERMANS BEGIN NEW RETREAT

Withdraw eBtween Oise and Aisne; Debeney Ready to Push Rapidly

(By the Associated Press)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY NORTHWEST OF VERDUN—Belleu wood, east of the Meuse, is finally and completely in American hands, after strenuous fighting for several days.

The wood was taken in a successful local attack late Sunday. Fighting is still taking place in the eastern portion of Ormont wood, in the same region.

(By the Associated Press)

PARIS—Germany's army has begun a new retreat, this time between the Oise and the Aisne. General Debeney's first army in the teeth of stubborn resistance and repeated counter attacks has succeeded in swinging on its right flank so that it faces east. It has reached Guise and the Guise-Marle road, driving the enemy before it.

General Debeney now is in position to push rapidly along the upper Oise valley toward Hirson and Vervins through a level country devoid of streams. The first result of his progress is to force the enemy opposing the tenth and fifth French armies, exhausted by fruitless counter attacks, to begin a backward movement which is eventually bound to extend to the front before Rethel. This will open to the fourth army a double passage of the Aisne and Ardennes canal.

General Debeney's success was won by hard fighting. The importance the enemy attached to stopping his progress up the Oise may be gathered from the fact that the Germans yesterday threw in three fresh divisions, which, however, were mocked out.

Advance in Mesopotamia

LONDON (1:15 p. m.)—The British advancing in Mesopotamia have cut the road from Sherghet to Mosul, one of the principal Turkish lines of communication. This probably will force the Turks to fall back on Mosul.

The British tenth army today resumed its attack against the Austro-Hungarian positions on the Italian front, the war office announced this afternoon. The attack is proceeding satisfactorily.

British troops in their offensive on the Austro-Italian front up to last night had captured more than 6,600 prisoners, according to an official statement issued today by the war office. The British also captured 29 guns, including six 9-inch howitzers.

Italians Driven Back

VIENNA (Sunday)—Between the Brenta and the Piave intense fighting continued throughout Saturday, according to the official statements today from Austro-Hungarian headquarters. The Italians were driven back in the region of Col Caprile.

The Austrian fourth division regained Monte Asolone, west of the Brenta and drove back the Italians on Monte Pertica.

The Austro-Germans have abandoned the town of Kraguievatz, 55 miles southeast of Belgrade, to the allied troops during rear guard fighting. In Albania, it is added, there has been nothing of special importance.

ACCEPTS ALL VIEWS OF PRESIDENT WILSON WITHOUT AWAITING NEGOTIATIONS

Fighting Will Be Stopped On Austro-Hungarian Fronts Says Despatch From Vienna

(By the Associated Press)

AMSTERDAM—Austria in her reply to President Wilson accepts all the views expressed by the president in his note of October 19.

Austria says she is willing and ready without awaiting the result of other negotiations, to negotiate a peace and an immediate armistice on all Austro-Hungarian fronts.

(By the Associated Press)

BASEL—Austro-Hungary, in notifying President Wilson, that it is ready to enter upon peace negotiations and arrange an armistice, asks President Wilson, in its reply to him, to begin overtures on the subject.

(By the Associated Press)

BASEL, Switzerland—The text of the Austrian reply to President Wilson reads:

"Austro-Hungary, accepting all the conditions the president has laid down for the entry into negotiations for an armistice and peace, no obstacle exists, according to the judgment of the Austro-Hungarian government to the beginning of these negotiations.

"The Austro-Hungarian government declares itself ready, in consequence, without awaiting the result of other negotiations to enter into negotiations upon peace between Austro-Hungary and the states in the opposing group and for an immediate armistice upon all Austro-Hungarian fronts.

"It asks President Wilson to be so kind as to begin overtures on this subject."

The Austro-Hungarian foreign minister instructed the Austro-Hungarian minister at Stockholm yesterday to ask the Swedish government to send the following note to the Washington government:

"In reply to the note of President Wilson of the 18 (19?) of this month, addressed to the Austro-Hungarian government and giving the decision of the president to speak directly with the Austro-Hungarian government on th equestion of an armistice and of peace, the Austro-Hungarian government has the honor to declare that equally with the preceding proclamations of the president, it adheres also to the same point of view contained in the last note upon the rights of the Austro-Hungarian peoples, especially those of the Czecho-Slovaks and the Jugo-Slavs.

"Consequently Austro-Hungary, accepting all the conditions."

In his reply to Austria-Hungary October 19, President Wilson said that events of utmost importance had altered the attitude and responsibility of the United States since his speech of January 8, the 14 points of which were accepted by Austria. The president added that in the interim the United States had recognized the Czecho-Slovaks as a belligerent and had recognized the aspirations of the Jugo-Slavs for freedom.

"The president is therefore no longer at liberty to accept the mere 'autonomy' of these peoples as a basis of peace, but is obliged to insist that they and not he shall be the judges of what action on the part of the Austro-Hungarian government will satisfy their aspirations and their conception of their rights and destiny as members of the family of nations."

In the last few days it has been reported that the Czechs were in complete control in Bohemia. It also has been reported that the Jugo Slav nations have taken steps to throw off the yoke of Austria and establish a free state.

In northern Serbia the Austro Germans have given up Kragujevatz, fifty-five miles southeast of Belgrade. The town formerly was the main Serbian arsenal and is of vital strategic importance.

Gen. Ludendorff's retirement as first quartermaster general of the German army is reported to have resulted from the action of the civil authorities in taking control of the military. It is reported also that the general resigned owing to a complete disagreement with Chancellor Prince Maximilian.

WASHINGTON—Pres. Wilson today approved a continuance of the present price of copper at 23 cents a pound until Jan. 1. NUXATED IRON

NUXATED IRON

"Say, Doctor, This Prescription Works Like Magic."

Physician Says Nuxated Iron Quickly Puts Astonishing Strength and Energy Into the Veins of Men and Brings Roses to the Cheeks of Nervous, Run-Down Women.

Ask the first hundred strong, healthy people you meet to what they owe their strength and see how many reply "Nuxated Iron." Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly physician of Bellevue Hospital (Outdoor Dept.), New York, and the Westchester County Hospital, says: "Thousands of people suffer from iron deficiency but do not know what to take. There is nothing like organic iron—Nuxated Iron, to enrich the blood, make beautiful, healthy women, and strong, vigorous iron men. To make absolutely sure that my patients get real organic iron and not some form of the metallic variety, I always prescribe Nuxated Iron in its original package. Nuxated Iron will increase the strength and endurance of weak, nervous, run-down folks in two weeks' time in many instances."

MANUFACTURERS' NOTE: Nuxated Iron recommended above by Dr. Sullivan can be obtained from any good druggist with or without a physician's prescription on an absolute manufacturers' guarantee of success or money refunded.

Headaches From Eye-Strain

A large proportion of headaches are "eye headaches," and for their relief there are but two remedies—use the eyes less or wear glasses, at least while working.

A person may be doing an amount of eye work for which Naturt never intended or prepared him and the result is shown in headaches.

No drugs will cure this condition. They give only temporary relief and create a drug habit.

One often hears a person say, "I have a nervous headche." That is true, they do have, but what causes a nervous headache? First, you see with the brain, not the eyes, as they just transmit the things you see to the brain, which is the seat of sight, and also of all the nerves of the body; so when your brain is called upon to do more work than it can well stand, then it gives a warning in the nature of headaches. So when you have one just take heed and look to the cause. Nine times out of ten they will be caused from strain on the brain from poor vision.

The proper thing to do is to consult an expert optometrist and have him examine your eyes. BUT BE VERY CAREFUL what optometrist you select to do that work.

We invite physicians to bring in some of their nervous patients and let us examine them to see if eye strain is causing that nervous condition.

UNITED DRIVE AIMS FAR ABOVE QUOTA

Minimum Budget Goal Assembled When Army Was Smaller

(By the Associated Press)

CHICAGO—The $170,500,000 which the united war work campaign has set out to raise in the week of Nov. 11, is a minimum and there is urgent necessity that it be heavily oversubscribed, Dr. John R. Mott, director general of the campaign told a conference of workers from 14 states here today. The money has been proportioned among the Y. M. C. A., National Catholic War council, Y. W. C. A., War Camp Community service, Jewish Welfare board, Salvation Army, and American Library association.

"When budgets for the seven war work agencies were assembled it was on the basis of an American army of 3,000,000 on both sides of the Atlantic," explained Dr. Mott. "Now we are preparing for an army of 5,000,000 and besides there are 600,000 sailors and marines to consider."

TO ESTABLISH NEW HATCHERY AT CROIX FALLS

W. L. Barber of Conservation Board Tells Why Trout Falls is Eliminated

Abandoning the plan to erect a fish hatchery for the propagation of trout at Trout Falls, the state conservation commission has selected St. Croix Falls for the site of the proposed structure, according to Commissioner W. E. Barber of this city.

"Trout Falls, which is famed as a fishing center in western Wisconsin and is renowned for its scenic beauties, was widely urged as the site for the trout hatchery," said Mr. Barber. "It conformed to the demands of the commission in all but one particular. Located eleven miles from Sparta, Monroe county, we found the nearest railroad was six miles away and that trucking over the sandy roads which abound in that country is a difficult task. Because of this fact, we were compelled to eliminate Trout Falls from consideration.

Stream Is Ideal

"At St. Croix Falls the commission found an ideal stream, fed by hundreds of springs, midst scenic beauties which cannot be surpassed in Wisconsin. Near by are railroad facilities and all the things we need to supply a hatchery.

"The commission is planning to raise 1,000,000 trout at St. Croix Falls as an experiment next spring. If the conditions are satisfactory we will ask the legislature for an appropriation of $20,000 to construct a hatchery on the site."

MOTHER TO KEEP CHILDREN IN CITY

Court Rules Against Father's Plea for Family to be Moved to Farm

John Mehleng, Cottage Grove, was denied the right to take his six children to his home in the country by Judge Hoppmann in Superior court, Saturday afternoon, after testimony had been given and habeas corpus proceedings had been instituted.

Mehleng came to Madison two years ago with his family and remained until last summer when he desired to return to his farm. His family refused to go with him. The children are all under 16 years of age. Mehleng asked the court to compel the mother to send the children to him.

Judge Hoppmann in denying the application declared that he believed the children were being well cared for by the mother and did not feel disposed to compel them to go to their father against their wishes.

TITTEMORE FOR G. O. P. CANDIDATES

Issues Statement Urging Supporters to Vote for Same Ticket

OSHKOSH—J. N. Tittemore of Omro urges the support of the republican ticket at the coming election by voters who supported him, in a statement just issued.

His statement follows:

"After a careful study of the platform written by the democratic and republican parties at their platform conventions, I believe it my duty to the thousands of citizens who voted with me and for the principles which I represented, to urge the support now of the republican ticket. We stood for a principle, and the men who supported me did not join our organization for the sole purpose of electing me to the governor's chair, but it was because they were anxious to have written into the statutes of the state laws which would improve their conditions.

Hits Democratic Document

"The republican party, represented at the platform convention by all factions, was quick to recognize the justice of our position and in every subject discussed. The republican platform takes a decided stand in favor of the safeguarding of the rights of labor, it contains a plank on taxation which we can readily indorse, it serves notice in plain words upon illegitimate profiteers that no exploitation of the people will be countenanced, it stands for economy in state affairs, and it recognizes the most important duty before us all in its pledge of Wisconsin's resources to help win the war.

"One plank which is of decided interest, and which Senator Blaine and byself helped to draw, refers to marketing. The democratic platform contains not one word upon this all important subject. As a matter of fact, it is a document devoid of any constructive program, and in all my experience it is the most flimsy platform upon which a great party has come before the people in an election. It promises nothing to the farmers. It recognizes none of our demands and promises nothing for our future.

Calls It Practical

"I sincerely believe that the republican platform, on the one hand, holds our practical assurance for use in constructive legislation, and I am as sincere in my belief that the republican administration, when it is elected, will faithfully carry out the promises made. In connection with this, we must remember that we run as republican candidates and as a result more than forty candidates for the legislature were nominated.

"It would be mighty inconsistent to turn around and commit an act which would endanger the election of these candidates. The fact of the matter is we must elect these men to back up our program. For that reason, and because I am more concerned in the benefits which we sought rather than in the elecaion of myself or any other man to public office, I strongly urge the support of the republican ticket in this campaign."

HAYS ATTACKS STATEMENT OF PRESIDENT

G. O. P. Leader Says the Republicans Loyal in All Respects

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK—Will H. Hays, chairman of the republican national committee, made public here Sunday night a statement in which he replied in behalf of his party to President Wilson's appeal to the nation to return a democratic congress. In his statement Mr. Hays said:

"President Wilson has questioned the motives and fidelity of your representatives in congress. He has thereby impugned their loyalty and challenged their patriotism. His challenge is to you who elected those representatives. You owe it to them in the honor of your great party and to your own self respect to meet that challenge squarely, not only as republicans, but as Americans. I, as your chairman, call upon you to d

No Credit for G. O. P.

"Mr. Wilson accords the republicans no credit whatever for having supported the 'war measures' proposed by his administration, although they have done so with great unanimity than the members o his own party. Despite that fact he accuses them of having tried to usurp his proper functions.

"At no time and in no way have they tried to take control of the war out of his hands. The president knows that. The country knows it. You know it. A more ungracious, more unjust, more wanton, more mendacious accusation was never made by the most reckless stump orator, much less by a president of the United States, for partisan purposes.

Calls It an Insult

"It is an insult, not only to ever loyal republican in congress, but to every loyal republican in the land. It fully merits the resentment which rightfully and surely will find expression at the polls.

"Mr. Wilson grudingly admits that the republicans have been 'pro-war.' Then why does he demand their defeat? Because they are still pro-war? Hardly that. No, it is because they are for peace through, not without, victory; because they do not believe lasting peace can be obtained through negotiations; because they consider that 'U. S. stands for unconditional surrender as well as for the United States and Uncle Sam.' The democratic congress does not. Mr. Wilson does not. There is the issue clear as the noonday sun. The country will decide.

Wants Rubber Stamps

"Mr. Wilson wants only rubber stamps, his rubber stamps, in congress. He says so. No one knows it better than democratic congressmen. He calls for the defeat of pro-war republicans and the election of anti-war democrats. He, as the executive, is no longer satisfied to be one branch of the government as provided by the constitution.

"Republican congressmen must be defeated and democratic congressmen must, as they would, yield in everything. That is evidently his idea—the idea of an autocrat, calling himself the servant, bidding for the mastery of this great free people.

"Republicans in congress have seemed to him good enough when they assented, as they did assent with highest patriotism and sometimes against their best judgment, to his proposals.

"Republicans at home have seemed to him good enough to send fully a million of their sons into battle, to furnish at least half of the army and far more than half of the money for winning the war, but they are not considered good enough to have a voice in the settlement of the war.

"But Mr. Wilson's real purpose has nothing to do with the conduct of the war. He has had that from the beginning, has it now, and nobody dreams of interfering with his control. He wants just two things. One is full power to settle the war precisely as he and his sole, unelected, unappointed, unconfirmed personal adviser may determine.

"The other is full power as the unembarrassed spokesman in affairs at home, as he actually demands in his statement, to reconstruct in peace times the great industrial affairs of the nation in the same way, in unimpeded conformity with whatever socialistic doctrines, whatever unlimited government ownership notions, whatever hazy whims may happen to possess him at the time, but first and above all with absolute commitment to free trade with all the world, thus giving Germany out of hand the fruits of a victory greater than she could win by fighting a hundred years. A republican congress will never assent to that. Do you want a congress that will? Germany does.

"Mr. Wilson forces the republican party to lie down or fight. I say fight. 'Answer with your votes.'

"Mr. Wilson is for unconditional surrender—yes, for the unconditional surrender to himself of the republican party, of the country, of the allies—all to him, as the sole arbiter and master of the destinies of the world. Do you stand for that? 'Answer with your votes.'"

MILK PRICES ARE BEING INVESTIGATED

Food Administrators Asked to Report on Retail Markets

A shortage of milk at present necessitates the purchase of milk outside of the state and thereby increases the expense of production. The milk division of the U. S. food administration for Wisconsin is studying the situation and in order to obtain an exact knowledge of conditions in different parts of the state has written letters of inquiry to food administrators in important milk centers.

The reports will inform the milk division of the retail prices dealers and retail milk distributors are charging consumers, the price the dealers are paying producers, whether the dealers pasteurize their milk the number of dealers in the cities and the population they supply.

AIRPLANE SERVES AS A PULPIT IN THE BATTLE ZONE

Army chaplains at the front have to adapt themselves to circumstances. While the spirit of their teaching remains the same, its external accessories vary greatly according to conditions. Chuch, altar and pulpit take strange forms. In this particular variety of "church" the preacher is seen using an airplane as his pulpit.

CHAPLAIN CONFRONTS NEAR TRAGEDY OF BROKEN HEARTS

GREAT LAKES — Lieut Charles W. Moore, corps of chaplains, was seated at his desk when a sailor named Harold Higgins entered, announcing he was going to get married and said he wanted the chaplain to tie the knot. "With pleasure," said the chaplain, "What's the girl's name?"

"Edith Steele," replied the sailor as the chaplain made a note of it.

A few moments later, Noel B. Lester, another bluejacket, entered the chaplain's office.

"I want to get married" said he. "Will you marry me?"

"With pleasure' said the chaplain, "What's the girl's name?"

"Edith Steele," replied the second sailor without a flicker of an eyelash.

The chaplain looked startled. Here, he thought, was the need of a little detective work to disclose the heartbreaking work of a vampire. But likemost amateur detectives Chaplain Moore overlooked the simplest solution.

There were two Edith Steeles. One is now Mrs. Lester and the other Mrs. Higgins. That's all there is to the almost-tragedy.

WOMEN GIVEN RULES ON DYEING

Old Clothes Made More Attractive by Renovation in Colors

Wisconsin women who wish to dye old clothes to make them more attractive for another year's wear will welcome the suggestions of Miss A. Boeing of the home demonstration department of the university.

"Spots and streaks in dyed garments may be prevented by thoroughly cleaning the material before dying. Dye will not penetrate the spots evenly.

"If the seams are ripped in heavy wool garments, the dyeing will be more even.

"If the garment is stirred with a wooden stick while dying, the danger of it sticking and burning to the bottom of the kettle is removed.

"Only soft silks can be dyed as the weighted ones such as taffeta do not wear after dying."

INSURANCE IS CARRIED BY U. S. AT A PROFIT

In Spite of Submarines Maritime Losses Are Fully Covered

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—Despite the government's low marine insurance rate and the losses suffered through the submarine raids off the American coast, less than two-thirds of the premiums paid to the marine section of the war risk insurance bureau have gone to pay losses.

Between Sept. 2, 1914, when the bureau was organized, and Oct. 15, 1918, $1,846,497,000 insurance was written on ships and their cargoes, mainly those passing through the war zone, involving premium payments on 24,990 policies of $45,825,000 and that losses were $29,775,000.

Profit to the government was $16,950,000. All but $305,442,000 of the insurance has been written since the United States entered the war.

G. O. P. IS LEFT OUT IN COLD SAYS REP. MOTT

New York Congressman Declares Real Jobs Are Held by Democrats

"America would be indignant if the German government told us we were the only nation at war with a partisan government, replying to our charges that their government is autocratic," declared Representative Luther W. Mott, New York, in a statement today.

"But Germany would be right. We have a partisan government. Our cabinet is the only one of the allied cabinets which does not represent all parties. The other countries had partisan cabinets at the beginning of the war but rapidly saw the advantage of having the opposition represented since they were asking and receiving its support, and coalition cabinets were formed.

"Republicans have been called to places of responsibility, it is true, but they are not close to the president, and the republican leaders in congress are only consulted when their votes are needed on war measures where the president's own party is divided on the question of supporting the administration.

"Thus Congressman Kahn was called on to lead the fight for the administration's selective draft bill, after it was found that the ranking democrats on the military affairs committee were opposed to it.

"Republicans are given dollar-a-year jobs where there is lots of work and no pay, but where the big salaries go, as on the numerous commissions where the republicans do not get even fair minority representation, you will find the democrats signing the pay rolls unanimously.

"Secy. McAdoo calls Mr. Vanderlip to help organize the wonderful system of selling war savings stamps, and Mr. Vanderlip did it at a great sacrifice, but coming down to the little jobs so numerous in the internal revenue office there are none but democrats on guard.

"The people in November can help correct the mistake of the president in giving republicans no share in the government.

"A republican house and a republican senate could see that we did not have entirely a partisan government, even if we did have a partisan cabinet.

"Then the other nations would believe that we had a real democratic government in the United States, and not one with a big D."

CREAM FOR HOME USE IS RESTRICTED

The sale of cream containing more than 20 percent butter fat to retail customers is prohibited in an order issued by the state food administration.

"The order means," says A. H. Melville, "the dairies will have to instruct their skimming stations to skim the cream down to 20 percent butter fat for the retail trade. This of course will mean more to the farmers, who can get more 20 percent cream from 100 pounds of milk than 22, 25 or 30 percent butter fat, while whipping cream contains about 30 percent. The order affects only cream sold for home consumption."

"Let us have faith that right makes might, and in that faith let us, to the end, dare to do our duty as we understand it."

WHY DO THEY STEER SHY OF REAL COMMUNITY ADVANCEMENT?

OUR readers, we trust, will pardon our attempt at being facetious during the past week toward the newly organized Aero club.

We hope further that our readers caught our spirit and motive in launching the Terra Firma club and in outlining its plans and ambitions.

Community welfare, ordinarily, should not be a subject for jest or banter. Only insofar as jest or banter serve to advance community welfare are they justifiable.

It was because the Aero club and the Terra Firma club so graphically emphasized the SUPERFICIAL and REAL ideas of community building in Madison that we brought out our inkpots of good natured ridicule with the thought of setting people to do some thinking.

The Capital Times has steadily contended that there are those charged with the responsibility of community advancement here in Madison who are spending too much of their time on sweet sounding oratorical taffy rather than on vital, fundamental problems that go to the heart of civic improvement.

Aerial mail routes are a desirable thing for this city. We hope that Madison is designated as one of the cities that will receive overhead mail. It will serve to advertise this city and to give it some distinction.

We don't see, however, that the bringing of mail by aeroplane to this city will do much toward making a more contented and happy community. The man who works for a salary, for instance, will derive no particular benefit from the opportunity to send a letter to some distant city at a cost of probably ten times greater than he can send it by train. It may serve to furnish a thrill here and there for those looking for something different and new. It won't bring any constructive good to the average home in the city of Madison.

Our point in this whole matter is that those people who are so eloquent and enthusiastic over SUPERFICIAL plans for this community are so silent on REAL and CONSTRUCTIVE movements for Madison.

The Capital Times has steadily had in mind three things which will make for the betterment of this city. In our estimation they are VITAL and FUNDAMENTAL. They are:

1—Wage conditions which will bring contentment and justice to the industrial workers of this city.

2—Public untility charges that will not be so excessive as to retard the development of the city.

3—The development of cordial relations with the rural sections with the reciprocal benefits that will accrue to both city and country.

That program, we believe, embodies more for the welfare of Madison than a hundred aerial mail routes. And yet on vital problems such as these the enthusiastic sponsors of the Aero club are strangely silent.

The Association of Commerce will lend its instrumentalities to the organization of an Aero club but it steers shy on any movement that involves the subject of wages, public utility charges and the proper recognition of our farmer friends.

Madison has been a low wage town. Low wage towns can never enjoy genuine, healthy growth. It is not to the interest of Madison to have a few become tremendously wealthy and to have the thousands struggle along on barely living wages. Low wages don't help the merchant any. They don't help the whole community any.

But the Association of Commerce, for reasons that are easy to guess, avoids all discussion of wages. Instead it queitly tries to discredit those who do fight for increased wages in this city by impugning to them motives of endeavoring to array class against class. Organized themselves to protect business in every possible way they deny to labor the right to organize for its protection and welfare.

Public utility charges have a direct bearing on the growth of any community. At the present time we have two public utilities here in Madison that are attempting to take from the people of this city $100,000 a year more than they are entitled to. Take $100,000 and distribute it over this city to families that need it and it would make a happier and contented town wouldn't it? And yet the citizens of Madison, at a time such as this are asked to yield that indemnity in order that a few may be assured earnings on their dishonest stock.

And the Association of Commerce and the Aero club enthusiasts sit complacently by and say nothing.

The treatment that we have extended to farmers has been of the shabbiest kind . We chased them from our streets a few years back. When the farmers come to town to talk organization for their own advancement we throw bricks at them. And then we expect them to walk into our stores and shell out their money. What have we done in the last five years to attract the farmer here?

We have preached this sermon before. But The Capital Times is going to keep at this program. We can't really help Madison by indulging in a lot of la-de-da movements that are froth and camouflage. Let's not spend so much time playing with toy balloons up in the sky. Let's stay on TERRA FIRMA. There is plenty to do here.

CLUB NOTES

THE Terra Firma club is growing but reports prevalent Saturday indicate that the Stand Back of the President club has lost a big bloc of its membership.

WITH THE WOMEN OF TODAY

"In my talks to members of women's trade unions I insist that uninterrupted production is a prime war necessity," says Mrs. Sara A. Conboy, general secretary-treasurer of the United Textile Workers of America. She holds many important positions in organizations connected with war work.

"We are trying also to get union members educated to realize the value of money as a supreme factor in winning the war," she continued. "At a recent meeting of textile workers in Knoxville, Tenn., I induced each of the 1,600 present to buy a $100 Liberty bond."

A large number of other trade union women are taking an active part in the movement to show labor its stake in the war, among them Miss Margaret Daly, Miss Ann Hogan, Mrs. Clarence Blackstone, Miss Mary E. Dreier and Miss Mamie Murphy. Mrs. Gertrude Breslau Fuller of Pennsylvania has been especially interested in war work.

Motor Corps Valuable

The khaki-colored motors, marked with a large red cross and driven by women in the khaki uniform of the Red Cross motor corps, are now so familiar a part of the traffic system of Washington as no longer to be objects of idle curiosity. Every one knows to what specific kind of service the ambulance or car or truck belongs, and its iminent usefulness as a woman's war measure was recognized long before the Spanish influenza appeared with its critical demands upon the days and nights of the members of the corps.

It is little more than six months since Mrs. J. Borden Harriman organized the Red Cross Motor corps, and, although the Washington division has only forty-five members, its "bit" ranks with the great things accomplished in the way of war relief.

Most of the women in the Red Cross motor corps have never worked before in their lives—that is really worked as the world generally lays down the rules of service, which means getting dead tired and dirty and making a business, day and night, to the exclusion of everything else.

But the motor corps, composed of women of independent means, most of them accustomed to disposing of their time according to their pleasure, have made good with their spirit of personal sacrifice and service and stopped at nothing.

Ambassador's Wife

Mrs. John W. Davis, wife of the newly appointed ambassador to Great Britain, acted as one of the saleslades recently at the state department's rummage sale de luxe which is held each week in Washington at The Bandbox, adjacent to the regular workrooms of the war relief committee of the state department.

If all war workers, government clerks and business women generally followed the lead of President Wilson's youngest daughter, there would be no occasion for uniforms, as each woman would select extremely simple, serviceable tailored suits, two of which would last an entire season, and be sensibly and suitably dressed every hour of the day. No one has ever seen Mrs. McAdoo in a cloth gown with chiffon sleeves, a georgette blouse with a sports skirt, ostrich plumage on a utility hat, or any other sartorial atrocity which uniforms are expected to correct.

LIKES WAR NEWS.

To the Editor of The Capital Times:

Permit me to say a word of commendation for the excellent war news which you are daily giving your readers.

At this time when readers are hungering for the latest, fullest and most reliable war news at the close of these eventful days, there is absolutely no way of getting it in this city except through the columns of The Capital Times.

From a day to day comparison I have found you are publishing from two to four times more war news than your competitor, besides it is the report of that unequaled news gathering organization, The Associated Press. No matter what my differences are with The Capital Times, I must have it for its news service.

SCENES OF SORROW AND JOY IN FRANCE'S DELIVERED CITIES

French refugees return to their home in Amiens, and (below) group of inhabitants of d'Ecourt St. Quentin greeting their deliverers.

Scenes of sorrow and joy are strangely intermingled in the delivered cities of France. In the upper photo a French refugee, with his wife and daughter, has returned to his home in Amiens, to find it utterly in ruins. Their grief may be imagined. The men and women seen in the lower photo may have lost their homes, but they are happy because they have regained their liberty after four long years of slavery under the German yoke.

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

We have it on authority of the columnist of the Baltimore "Sun" that "Mat Kelly caught a string of forty-two bass, not one of which weighed less than three pounds."

An incipient attack of Spanish flu has cost one dear lady a perfectly good set of false teeth. It happened at Utica, where she sneezed off that high railroad viaduct.

The government is buying up all the castor oil beans. Seems to be no end to the good news these days.

It certainly must be some war. It has caused all the politicians to forget the tariff for the first time in one hundred and thirty years.

MIKE'S DISCOVERY.

Dear Sir—I guess we'll have to stir up our old friend Bill Shakespeare and ask the ancient question again: "What's in a name?" for the simple reason that there happens to be a firm on East Eleventh street answering to the name of "Berlin & Trosky." MIKE.

There really is not much in a name so it doesn't matter what one you hang on the baby. Look at Ferdinand of Bulgaria, then at Ferdinand Foch.

OUR OWN KHAYYAM.

When you and I behind the veil are passed,
Oh, but the long, long time the world shall last!
The world's a stage, but in war times like these
We are but minor members of the cast.

However small our parts we should play well
To make a certain thing of kultur's knell;
If minor actors fail, there's no success.
Deny no man who has these bonds to sell.

Herbert Hoover is so violently opposed to the doughnut that it must be he has eaten some of them some time. They just don't seem to agree with everybody.

There doesn't seem to be any reason why anybody who wants it shouldn't acquire the title of ex-chancellor of Germany.

Our slogan: "Tell it to Foch."

Soon it will be time to set the clocks back again or ahead, which ever it is, and to gain an hour or to lose one, as the case may be.

CHANCELLORS

After a fellow has chancelled a minute
Or two, he finds out that there isn't much in it,
Though he's on the job and he chancels his durndest,
And works like a Trojan and does his dadburndest,
And chancels right up to his best form and style,
They put some one else in to chancel awhile.
It matters not much at all who is the man,
The best that a chancellor gets is the can.
Though Hollweg, Michaelis or Hertling or Max,
Wilhelm's in the woodshed a whetting the ax.
Success for a chancellor's too much to ask,
No man can perform an impossible task,
Though many a chancellor grabs for his hat,
We claim that a goat is a goat for a' that.

THESE MEN WILL ARRANGE DETAILS OF GERMAN EVACUATION

Generals Haig, Foch and Pershing.

Germany has given up the idea of a mixed commission to arrange the details of her evacuation of occupied territories. The allied peoples are a unit in the determination that the only men they care to see on such a commission are Generalissimo Foch, Marshal Haig and General Pershing. If these men arrange the evacuation Americans may rest assured that it will be satisfactorily carried out.

Will help you win renown.

Why Acid-Stomach Causes So Much Bad Health

Many people seem to think that acid-stomach—or superacidity—is of little importance; that it merely causes some slight trouble such as belching, heartburn, sour, gassy stomach, food-repeating, bloat, etc.

If those same people would only realize the real truth about acid-stomach and when these first symptoms appear would at once start to rid themselves of the excess acid, what a crushing load of awful suffering, misery and ill-health would be lifted from mankind!

Do you realize that the ill effects of an acid-stomach extend throughout the entire system and more or less effect practically every organ and tissues of the human body from the crown of the head to the soles of the feet? Well, it's a fact. For instance, probably few people would ever think that there could be any connection between an acid-stomach and dandruff and falling hair; or between an acid-stomach and a gouty foot. Nevertheless there is a direct connection.

Now you know what acid mouth does to the teeth. The acid eats right through the hard enamel causing them to decay. What chance, then, do you think the delicate organization of the stomach has against excess acid?

The excess acid interferes with digestion and assimilation. It causes the food to ferment. Makes the sour stomach and creates gases. That's what causes those acute stomach pains of indigestion, that miserable bloated feeling after eating, heart-burn, belching, food-repeating, etc.

Moreover, that sour mass of fermenting food becomes a breeding place for countless millions of deadly germs—toxic poisons they are called. They are absorbed into the system, impoverish the blood, make it thin and weak. That is why so many people you see are weak and emaciated; thin, bloodless and look bad; not downright sick but always ailing, lacking in vitality, vim and vigor. They've lost their punch; are listless in both their work and pleasures—they're run down and seem "all in."

Now of course the right thing to do is to get rid of the excess acid, give the stomach a chance to digest the food properly and Nature will do the rest. There is a quick and easy way to do this. A wonderful new discovery makes it possible to remove excess acid without the slightest discomfort. It is called EATONIC, made in the form of tablets—they are good to eat—just like a bit of candy. Their action in the stomach is a good deal like a piece of blotting paper taking up a drop of ink—they literally absorb the injurious excess acid and carry it away through the intestines. They also drive the bloat out of the body—in fact you can fairly feel them work.

Try EATONIC and see how quickly it banishes the immediate effects of acid-stomach—bloat, heartburn, belching, food-repeating, indigestion, etc. See, too, how quickly your general health improves—how much more relish you take in eating—how much more easily your food is digested—how soundly you sleep—how nervousness and irritability disappear.

It is so easy to get this help—and it costs so little. So why suffer another hour when sure, quick relief is at hand? Everywhere people who have used EATONIC testify to its power to bring quick relief. The testimonials of some of these people are so enthusiastic and tell of such remarkable results as to be almost unbelievable.

If you are one of those who have "tried every thing," but in spite of it are still lacking in physical strength and vigor, begin at once to take EATONIC. Don't put it off. Get back your physical and mental punch. Have the power and energy to work with vim. Enjoy the good things of life. Learn what it means to fairly bubble over with health. Like thousands of others, you will say that you never dreamed it possible that such a wonderful change for the better could be brought about so quickly.

So get a big box of EATONIC from your druggist today. We authorize him to guarantee EATONIC to please you and you can trust your druggist to make this guarantee good. If it fails in any way, take it back—he will refund your money. If your druggist does not keep EATONIC write to us and we will send you a big 50c box. You can send us the 50c after you receive it. Address H. L. Kramer, President, Eatonic Remedy Company, corner Wabash Ave. and 11th St., Chicago, Ill.

Those draftees wishing the aid of lawyers in filling out their questionnaires instead of going to the court house as previously planned are requested by the health officials to go to the attorneys' offices. This is a precautionary move to prevent a further spread of the epidemic.

SALVAGE HUT TO BE IN KRESGE BLOCK

The Red Cross Salvage hut will be opened in one of the offices of the Kresge block, South Pinckney street. Articles will be collected here and transferred to the warehouse on Doty street, donated by A. Breese Morris. Mrs. E. B. Steensland has been appointed chairman of the salvage committee.

Baling machines for paper are wanted by the salvage committee. The money from the salvage sales will be used for defraying the expenses of the local Red Cross chapter.

The depot for the distribution of the Christmas box containers for the men in service overseas will probably be established at this office.

Paul L. Voelker, whose resignation as secretary of the lecture department of the University Extension division took place Oct. 1, is now at Columbia university working for his doctor's degree. His work here is being carried on by the assistant secretary, R. B. Duncan. While in Madison, Mr. Voelker was the head of the Wisconsin chautauqua.

HUN PRISONERS KNOW THAT UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER IS ONLY THING THAT WILL SAVE THE KAISER AND HIS GANG

German prisoners taken by Americans in St. Mihiel salient.

The Huns in the above American official photo, a mere handful of the 15,000 taken by the American troops in wiping out the St. Mihiel salient, can testify that unconditional surrender is the only thing that will save Germany. These Huns are still alive simply because they yelled "kammerad" when the Americans were set to make them "good" Germans. They are being marched back to a prison pen.

PRESIDENT IN EXPLANATION OF TRADE PLANK

Says He Meant no Restriction Upon Internal Policies

By the Associated Press

WASHINGTON—President Wilson replied today to republican criticism that the third of the 14 points in a free trade plank, explaining that in demanding the removal of economic barriers he meant to suggest no restriction upon internal economic policies, but only that whatever tariff might be necessary, if any, for might seem necessary, it should apply equally to all foreign nations.

The president made the explanation in a letter to Senator Simmons of North Carolina, chairman of the senate finance committee who had written him asking for a statement "because certain republican leaders are attempting to make partisan use" of the paragraph.

"Weapons of economic discipline and punishment," the president wrote, "should be left to the joint action of all nations for the purpose of punishing those who will submit to a general program of justice and equality."

He added that to inject the bogey of free trade, which is not involved at all, was to attempt to divert the mind of the nation from a vital principle of a durable peace, and that it was lamentable that momentous issues of this solemn hour should be seized upon in an effort to bend them to partisan service.

BULGARIANS TREAT GREEKS INHUMANELY

People Abandoned to Famine, Outrage, and Murder, Says Dr. Pazis

(By the Associated Press)

SALONIKI (Saturday)—The Bulgarians, during their occupation of eastern Macedonia, attempted to force the Greeks to become Bulgarians and treated the Greeks cruelly, declares Dr. Pazis, vice president of the Greek chamber of deputies.

"There were wholesale deportations and the people were abandoned to famine, outrage, and murder," says Dr. Pazis.

The Bulgarians sent large numbers of Greek children into Bulgaria without the parents of the children knowing the purpose of the Bulgarians. In a hospital in Saloniki is a 14-year-old Greek girl who was cruelly treated by the Bulgarians who murdered her father and mother. Her father, the mayor of Bourmade, died at the hands of the Bulgarians with these words on his lips: "I was born a Greek and I will die a Greek."

The girl's mother died as a result of inhuman treatment at the hands of Bulgarian officers.

MILAN SOCIALISTS REBUKE GOMPERS

Labor Leaders Refuse to Meet President of American Federation

NEW YORK—Details of how Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, in his recent visit to Europe met his sole rebuff during his trip at the hands of the socialist group at Milan, were received Sunday night in a cablegram to the American Alliance for Labor and Democracy.

According to the cablegram, Mr. Gompers had met all groups in Italy save the Milanese group, and sent a note the Milanese group at Milan announcing his desire to meet them. He received a reply, through the federation of labor, stating that the Milanese group felt that further political discussion was impossible because of statements Mr. Gompers had made in a speech at Rome concerning "the emigration question" and was "obliged to decline the invitation."

Mr. Gompers, the cablegram said, declared that their attitude "proved that the general federation of labor in Italy is not an expression of free independent thought, for, with the avanti, it is nothing but an organization of serfs."

GERMAN PRESS EAGER TO HEAR EXACT TERMS

Editors Not Grieved at Prospective Disappearance of Hohenzollerns

(By the Associated Press)

AMSTERDAM—Pres. Wilson's note to Germany was printed textually in the German newspapers Thursday evening and Friday morning. The Vossische Zeitung of Berlin printed the English text alongside the note in German.

Aside from the junker organ which proclaimed the necessity of every man coming to the front for the emperor and the empire, many papers apparently contemplate without excessive lament the prospective disappearance of the Hohenzollern dynasty. The emperor's abdication is again strongly rumored to be impending.

It is noteworthy that the Frankfurt Gazette views a coming "sacrifice" with comparative equanimity and both the Berlin and Frankfort stock exchanges showed an improved tendency as a result of Pres. Wilson's note.

Fears are not concealed that the entente conference at Paris will put forward demands "incompatible with German honor," but the anxiety to know the exact terms of the associated governments puts everything else in the background.

"Anger and shame are bad counsellors," says the Lokal Anzeiger of Berlin, which is content to leave the decision to the army leaders.

REV. GOODNIGHT DIES AT AGE OF 78

Father of Dean of Men Succumbs to Heart Failure

The Rev. Thomas Henry Goodnight, father of Dean S. H. Goodnight of the University of Wisconsin, 1930 Keyes avenue, died at 2 o'clock this morning of heart failure. His death was very sudden, for he seemed in perfect health Sunday.

The funeral services will be held at Dean Goodnight's home, 2130 West Lawn avenue, at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Dr. MacLaurin of the Baptist church will officiate. Interment will be in the Forest Hill cemetery.

The Rev. Mr. Goodnight was born Dec. 6, 1840, son of a Kentuckian, who had fought under Gen. Jackson at New Orleans, in 1814, and was a pioneer in Indiana. He was born on a farm near Bloomington, and when 12 years of age, the family drove overland to western Illinois, and settled on a farm near Old Bedford. Mr. Goodnight was a graduate from Abingdon college in 1872. He taught for a short time and then entered the ministry. He preached for over 40 years in Kansas, Illinois, Iowa and Wisconsin.

The Rev. Mr. Goodnight retired 6 years ago because of deafness and has been living in Madison since.

DEMOCRATS FILE EXPENSES OF CAMPAIGNS

National Committee Receipts $412,138; Baruch Largest Contributor

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON—Campaign expense accounts filed with the house today included that of the democratic national committee showing receipts of $412,138 and disbursements of $355,459. The republican national committee statement has not been filed.

B. M. Baruch, chairman of the war industries board, with $25,000 is the largest contributor to the democratic fund. He with a number of other democrats including Vance McCormick and A. Mitchell Palmer, are named as lending $150,000 to the committee.

Reports also were filed by the senatorial and congressional committees of both parties. The democratic senatorial committee reported receipts of only 100 $50 donations by Senators Pittman of Nevada and Gary of Rhode Island, of which $62.16 was spent, while republican contributions were $71,200 and expenditures $56,055.

The democratic congressional committee reported receipts of $122,900 and expenditures of $62,702, while the republican committee spent $140,895 out of its receipts of $159,378. The democratic report said all but about $7,000 came from the national committee.

FRENCH HORSES DRIVEN TANDEM

John S. Donald Writes From Overseas of Strange Customs

In France horses are not driven side by side as in this country, according to John S. Donald, former secretary of state, now serving as a Y. M. C. A. secretary in France. Writing to a friend in Madison about the fine horses of France, he says:

"Just a few moments ago a Frenchman went past driving two splendid stallions. These were hitched to a logging cart, and the trailing cart was a huge thing, wheels fully ten feet in diameter. The French drive and do all their teaming with one horse or, if more, driven tandem. In Paris it is not uncommon to see three and four fine stallions driven this way and behaving perfectly."

SEN. LENROOT MAKES APPEAL FOR M'CORMICK

Says He Has Shown Independence and Lewis Has Not

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Illinois voters, Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin said yesterday, are called upon to choose for senator either Medill McCormick, an ardent pro-war statesman, "who has dared to use his independent judgment," and James Hamilton Lewis, who echoes the president's views and changes his mind as often as does Mr. Wilson.

Senator Lenroot also contrasted Mr. McCormick's attitude of placing "country above party" with Senator Lewis' declaration in 1898 that no true Democrat places "my country before party."

"Democrats as well as Republicans in Washington expect Illinois will elect Medill McCormick senator by an overwhelming majority," Senator Lenroot said. "I believe if there was the slightest doubt of this that doubt has been removed by President Wilson's partisan appeal to the country. No state should elect a rubber stamp as senator. On Nov. 5 they will choose between Medill McCormick, who has been one of the most aggressive supporters of the war and has dared to use his independent judgment, and Senator Lewis, who takes pride in the fact that he always does exactly as President Wilson does, and always changes his mind at exactly the same moment with him.

"Senator Lewis now has a resolution pending in the senate approving of everything President Wilson has done in his dealings with Germany in the past and approving everything President Wilson may do in the future in the war and the establishment of peace. He therefore applauds President Wilson's statement on Sept. 27 that he would not negotiate with the present authorities of Germany, and also applauds his beginning negotiations with those same authorities two weeks later. He proposes to disregard the obligations imposed upon the senate by the constitution in connection with the treaty of peace, and would ratify in advance any treaty that the president may make."

FOUR IN COURT RECOMMENDED FOR CLASS ONE

William Corscot and 3 Others May be Changed in Draft Call

Four men who have been brought before Superior court on charges of non-support have been recommended for classification in class 1 of the draft by District Attorney Sarthoff. They are William E. Corscot and Martin Gilbert Madison; Glenn E. Felton, Dane, and Ray E. Worthing, Mazomanie.

The non-support case was dismissed against Corscot when his wife appeared in court and declared she had told her husband she did not wish him to support her. He had been paying $12.50 a month for the care of their child.

Martin Gilbert was recently held for trial on a statutory charge, after a woman testified that he had represented himself to be an officer and had taken her away from her escort.

BADGERS LOSE FIRST GAME; SCORE 7 TO 0

Varsity Boys Show Results of Careful Coaching; Fight Hard

Despite Camp Grant's scoreboard victory of 7 to 0 at Camp Randall this afternoon, the outstanding feature of the Badgers' first game this season was to convince coaches and spectators alike that the varsity boys are capable of putting up a fight equal to the best of conference elevens.

The Badger eleven during the entire first three-quarters held the soldier boys scoreless. Several times "Windy" Levis' men threatened with line smashes near the Badger goal, but each time the home boys came back in wonderful style.

At the opening of the fourth quarter the visitors opened up with one of the prettiest plays of the game. Mansefield intercepted a poorly shot pass and dashed 40 yards without interference for the only touchdown. Lutes easily kicked the goal, and the score stood 7 to 0.

Four hundred S. A. T. C. men filled several center sections of the grand stand. Nearly 200 co-eds and other spectators in civilian clothes ignored the "flu" ban and watched the game from Poverty hill. Few persons from Camp Grant, other than the team, witnessed the game.

For the Badgers Brade, Barr and Sundt played a wonderful game. Time after time Brader's end tackles threw the soldiers back for no gains, and Sundt's plowing through the line got the ball out of danger more than once. The team in general showed a brand of team work that were unmistakeably the signs of careful coaching.

KNOX PROTESTS DICTATING OF PEACE TERMS

Senator Appeals for Voice of People in Considering Treaty

(By the Associated Press)

WASHINGTON — General debate on peace and partisan politics broke out today in the senate.

Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, republican, and former secretary of state, attacked President Wilson's appeal for the return of a democratic congress, declaring it raised the question whether the will of the president or the will of the American people is to determine the policy of the United States in ending the war and founding peace. He said a spirit of "partisanship and secrecy" had marked the conduct of the administration.

"When there is talk of abdication of the kaiser" said the senator, "It is a peculiar moment to propose that the American people should abdicate their right to have opinions or that the senate and house should abdicate their sworn and independent duties."

Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, chairman of the foreign relations committee, immediately replied to Senator Knox and the discussion became general with questions and statements fired at the speaker from the republican side.

Senator Hitchcock said the president had pursued the logical course, citing how he had called congress into joint session to tell it in 14 principles the terms which he believed were the essentials upon which the United States should insist as a basis of peace. These principles, he said, were accepted then by all parties as being in keeping with American ideals.

Referring to republican contentions that in his third principle against economic barriers, the president was endeavoring to write free trade into the peace treaty, Senator Hitchcock read a letter from the president saying he did not consider it worth while to answer the republican criticism; that it would be impossible to follow up "all of the perversions and that is representations that some of the republicans are now indulging in."

The president said his words left every nation free to determine its own economic policy, except that its policy must be the same toward all nations and that in his judgment, the matter could be left safely in the hands of "our fellow countrymen who can read English."

STAUDENMAYER WILL DIVULGE SOME LETTERS

Will Make Reply to Statements Made by His Opponents

George Staudenmayer, Portage, was in the city today with his fighting clothes on.

Senator Staudenmayer promises some interesting revelations with respect to the letter which he sent to Burt Williams and which is now being used by J. E. Jones, Portage, independent candidate against Staudenmayer.

Senator Staudenmayer alleges that the letter was changed and that several important words and sentences were left out to suit the purposes for which Jones desired it.

He also states that he has some correspondence from Burt Williams that will interest the public. Senator Staudenmayer says that Williams' reply to his letter makes interesting reading.

"Important sentences were left out of the letter," said Staudenmayer. "For instance they left out after the sentence 'I will not support any person, even though he be my best friend if he makes his campaign on Americanism' the word 'only' which changes the whole meaning of the sentence.

"Other portions of the letter were left out in the same way.

"Mr. Jones also neglected to say that in his paper, The Portage Democrat, he praised me for my stand on the embargo and said that I was as loyal as any man in Wisconsin. I shall make public this matter within the next few days."

The shortage of news paper has put a premium on truth and brevity in the presentation of news. No change in policy has been found necessary by The Capital Times.

STENJEM WITNESS BARES LIQUOR SALE

Charles Pryor, saloonkeeper at Sun Prairie, was fined $25 and costs for selling liquor to minors. He pleaded not guilty in Superior court Saturday afternoon but was convicted on testimony of Wallace Ryan, 20 years of age. Ryan testified at the inquest held in the death of Nissen P. Stenjem that he (Ryan) had purchased a quart bottle of whiskey at the Pryor saloon previous to meeting Stenjem. He said he was accompanied by two other youths and that before they purchased the whiskey they had been served with intoxicating drinks over the bar.

It's the buying power represented in circulation that counts. Readers of The Capital Times are the big wage earners in this community.

CHICAGO GRAIN REVIEW

CHICAGO—Although announcement that that the German government was awaiting proposals for an armistice had a bearish effect today on corn the market soon reacted. Selling on account of the note was not aggressive and there appeared to be no urgent demand. The upturn brought about some increase of offerings of commission houses. Opening prices which ranged from ⅝ to 1⅝ cents lower with November 1.24⅛ to 1.25 and December 1.10½ to 1.20¼ were followed by an advance to well above Saturday's finish but then a fresh decline.

Oats paralleled the action of corn. After opening unchanged to ¼ cent lower with November 69⅝ to ¾ the market rallied but again tended to sag.

Higher quotations on hogs hoisted provisions.

Subsequently a sharp break in values took place owing to word that Austria had accepted all the views expressed by President Wilson on October 19. Prospects of an after the war demand for cereals, however, exerted a noticeable rallying influence. The close was unsettled ⅞ to 2¼ cents net lower with November 1.23⅝ to ⅞ and December 1.19⅝ to 1.19⅞.

LUDENDORFF QUITS GERMAN ARMY COMMAND

but reports to that effect, it says, are being circulated by the pan-Germans.

(By the Associated Press)

LONDON — Emperor William has no intention of abdicating but is willing if it is for the good of the people to ordain that his rights shall be reframed, according to a statement attributed to German court circles. The Emperor is said to have remarked:

"I will not abandon my sorely tried people, but if necessary I am ready to become something like hereditary president of a German republic like the kings of England and Belgiums."

Ludendorff Resigns

LONDON — Official announcement was made in Berlin Saturday night that Emperor William had acceded to the request of Gen. Ludendorff, the first quartermaster general, that he be permitted to resign.

General surprise was caused in Berlin on Saturday afternoon by the fact that he daily report from German headquarters was not signed, as usual, with the name of Gen. Ludendorff.

Later, the following official announcement was issued:

"The emperor, accepting the request to be allowed to retire of infantry Gen. Ludendorff, the first quartermaster general and commander in time of peace of the Twenty-fifth infantry brigade, has placed him on the unattached list. The emperor decided at the same time that the lower Rhenish infantry regiment No. 39, of which the general has long been chief, shall bear henceforth the name of Ludendorff."

His resignation, it is believed in London, will still further shake the faith of the German people in their military machine.

TODAY'S SITUATION

(By the Associated Press)

Germany asks the allies to name the terms for an armistice.

A note to this effect is now on its way to Washington from Berlin, it is reported. The note is understood to call attention to the far reaching changes made in the German constitutional structure and is said to aver that a peace government which is in control of the military powers of Germany, is carrying on the negotiations.

It is understood that the allies have decided upon the terms to be exacted before hostilities are suspended, but that these terms will not be announced until the German note is officially made public.

Gen. Ludendorff, who led the German armies in the big offensives of the last spring and summer, has resigned.

German forces holding the sharp salient between the Serre-Oise rivers in France, have been compelled to abandon their positions, which they have obstinately held for the last twelve days. The French armies on either side of this salient launched a blow Saturday which flattened out the angle in the enemy's front and which may have a definite effect on the German line eastward through Rethel and the Argonne forest to the Meuse river.

It may be that the Germans have prepared lines further east of which they are now retiring along the Serre-Oise front, but they are not apparent on the map. There are few, if any, natural positions which will lend themselves to defensive operations west of Vervins, south of which there is broken country. To the north of Vervins there are extensive forests which might be utilized as cover by the enemy.

It is reported that the Hunding line is broken near Guise. If this is a fact the whole German line south and north of that city is in danger. Collapse of the enemy's front there would weaken the lines along the Aisne near Rethel, where the French have been virtually held up for some time. If the line of the Aisne gives way the Germans further east, around the Argonne forest and nearer the Meuse, must readjust their lines, it would seem.

In the neighborhood of Valenciennes the British are still fighting their way ahead but their progress over the restricted front between Mormal forest and the bend of the Scheldt is slow. Further north the enemy seems to have established himself strongly behind the Scheldt, and only local successes by the allies are reported.

There is no evidence of lowered morale in the savage resistance of the Austrians before the Italian attack in the Brenta and Piave sectors in Italy. It would appear that the allied forces there have not been able to move ahead except by dint of terrific effort and at a slow pace. It seems probable that the offensive will develop into a reconnaissance in force instead of a real offensive.

Gen. Allenby's forces in Palestine have occupied Aleppo and appear virtually to have virtually completed the destruction of Turkish power in Syria. The way is now open for a junction between the army of Allenby and the one moving up the Tigris.

Prosperity is the keynote in Madison. Do your Christmas advertising early. Highly paid workers have the money to buy your goods.

QUESTION OF TERMS OF BE DISCUSSED

the program of naval and military measures which the armistice necessitates. It is unlikely that Germany will object to the details after agreeing to the principal. If any confirmation were needed as to the significance of Dr. Solf's reply, it would be found in General Ludendorff's resignation."

The Daily Mail hopes and believes the allies "Will not do anything so foolish, as immediately to disclose the terms upon which they are willing to grant an armistice. The paper says the German reply does not meet President Wilson's questions and after summarizing the most recent happenings in Germany declares in effect that nothing is altered there.

"The sword is still in the hands of autocracy," the paper says. "It will be time enough for Marshal Foch to state the terms when that sword has been broken or surrendered."

"The promptitude of the reply may be accepted as convincing evidence at least of Germany's desire and need of an armistice," says the Post. "Dr. Solf's assertions regarding far reaching changes are not very satisfying. However nothing has happened as yet to suggest that anything fundamental has been changed in Germany, except the expectation of the victory. The first condition of any armistice is that Germany shall be unable to break it or refuse the conditions the allies dictate. If the German government means business it will send plenipotentiaries to Marshal Foch, but from present indications Germany's rulers are intent only on gaining time."

The Times says: "There is no viewpoint in the German reply except that it seeks rather crudely to impose upon President Wilson and the allies the initiation of proposals for an armistice. It is time for the Germans to approach the naval and military commanders with their formal petition for a cessation of war."

COPENHAGEN—Germany's answer to President Wilson's latest communication says:

"The German government has taken cognizance of the answer of the president of the United States.

"The president is aware of the far reaching changes which have been carried out and are being carried out in the German constitutional structure, and that peace negotiations are being conducted by a people's government in whose hands rests, both actually and constitutionally, the power to make the deciding conclusions.

"The military powers are also subject to it.

"The German government now awaits proposals for an armistice, which shall be the first step toward a just peace, as the president has described it in his proclamation.

"SOLF."

entered the postoffice as a mailing clerk. He won promotion quickly and after a few years was chief mailing clerk.

When W. A. Devine, present postmaster, was appointed, Mr. Nelson was chosen as his assistant and he held that position up to the time of his death.

Postmaster W. A. Devine in commenting upon Mr. Nelson's death said:

"Mr. Nelson's death comes as a great shock to me. It is indeed an unusually sad case, the father and only son dying within two days. He was a devoted husband and father, always taking a great interest in his home life.

"Mr. Nelson entered the postoffice service Aug. 6, 1898. He advanced rapidly on account of his hard work and close attention to his duties, until he became chief mailing clerk. After holding that position for some time he was transferred to the money order division. Eight years ago I appointed him assistant postmaster. He proved successful in that position as he did in all the minor positions he so ably filled since he entered the postoffice service.

"Ingwald Nelson was one of those quiet, unassuming men, of very few words, with a pleasing disposition, and always a perfect gentleman. He was well informed on the postal rules and regulations and performed all duties assigned him with great credit to himself and with satisfaction to the patrons whom he served. His place will be hard to fill. He was my staunch friend and loyal coworker. He was loved and respected by every employe in the postoffice, on account of his fairness and honesty of purpose. We will all miss him."

The funeral will be held Tuesday afternoon under the auspices of the Masons. Hiram lodge, No. 50, will meet at the home at 2 o'clock and escort the body to forest Hill cemetery where services will be held at the grave.

REACTIONARIES HATE TO LET GO IN GERMANY

BERNE, Switzerland—The feeling in Germany in regard to President Wilson's new note apparently is much divided. The conservative, military and junker papers on the one side are crying that the president intends to subjugate and annihilate Germany. The liberal papers on the other side express appreciation of the president's effort toward world-wide pacification.

The reactionary elements are struggling desperately for their traditional privileges and traditions but their opponents express confidence that the liberals in the reichstag and the government are sufficiently powerful to master them.

PHILIPP SILENT ON ASHLAND'S FIFTH OUTBREAK

Governor Not Ready With Statement on Tarring and Feathering

No statement would be given out at the executive office regarding the fifth outbreak of lawlessness at Ashland. Practically complete reports have been received here regarding the outbreak Friday night when John Oestreicher was given a coat of tar. In spite of the proclamation of Pres. Wilson declaring that lawlessness aids pro-Germanism, conditions in Ashland seem to have been growing worse.

Following is the mob law record of Ashland.

March 31, Prof. Schilmer, Northland college, Ashland, was taken from his room by masked men and given a coat of tar and feathers.

April 10, Adolph Anton, a resident of Ashland was taken from his home presumably by the same gang stripped and painted with tar and feathers.

May 8, William Landmann, formerly deputy income tax assessor of the Ashland district, was taken from his home and tarred and feathered.

July 3, Martin Johnson taken from his home and tarred and feathered.

Oestheicher Visited.

Oct. 25, John Oestheicher given coat of tar.

According to information received here, John Oestheicher, known as "Sandy John," was tarred and feathered last Friday by a crowd of seven or eight men, who went to his place off the Sanborn road about 9 o'clock. They found him at the shack of a neighbor and took him to a spot on the Benoit road and stripped him, applied a liberal coat of tar and feathers, gave him a lecture and told him to go home. He walked to the cemetery road where he was picked up by a neighbor and brought to Ashland where his injuries were dressed at the General hospital and he was otherwise cleaned up.

Does Not Hold Bonds.

Oestreicher has not purchased war savings stamps and has not been a subscriber to any of the liberty loans and this is probably the cause of his fall from grace. He is a bachelor, is 55 years of age, and has lived on a farm near Sanborn for 20 years. He stated that he did not recognize any of the members of the tar party but that after giving him the coat of tar and feathers they got into their auto and went towards Benoit.

Oestreicher blames his fall from grace to the fact that he has no road to his farm. He stated that he has tried for 20 years to get a road and has not succeeded and so decided that he would not give anything until he got a road. By putting this theory into practice he "got in bad" with the community and the tar and feather party Friday night was the outcome.
